From the Founders

The Athletic Hall of Fame (AHOF) was established to honor and preserve the legacy of athletes, coaches, teams, and “friends” of Warrior athletics who have excelled in the past and inspired others to achieve greatness in their own future. Myself and others envisioned creating the AHOF in the fall of 2008. A year later, the AHOF was on its way to being created when it was enthusiastically endorsed by Sherwood’s Warrior Club. At its inception, a committee was formed to develop by-laws and an operational framework to begin a call for nominations. Thanks to the efforts of Warren Crutchfield, Marshall Dauberman, Lou Altobelli, Steve Bolen, Ronnie Estrain, Bart Popeck, Laura Rhode, David Septoff, and myself, our inaugural class was selected in June 2010. It is a privilege to honor the dedication, teamwork, support, and achievement of these and future inductees who have set the foundation for success and tradition of Sherwood athletics.
